LOOK WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING...

“Krimsin Door rocks! - The music was executed to perfection- they were very entertaining, professional and have an excellent playlist.”

KARLISA - (One HOT CHICK) - Karlisa was raised in a very creative home in Irving, Texas, breaking all the young boy's hearts with her sweet, girly voice and invitingly sexy smile. She lived in the shadow of her famous older sister, Dallas Cowboys Cheerleader, Kim...but always knew the real talent lived inside of her vocal chords and fingertips. To pay her way through college, she performed for several stage and screen productions, including the roles of Helen Henny, (in Chuck E. Cheese theater locations Internationally), Dolly Parton (Six Flags over Texas) and various parts in several industrial/convention type shows in the U.S. and abroad. She's also a talented producer and voice-over artist. Karlisa lives in a suburb near Dallas with her husband and two kids, and has been performing on the DFW club scene for nearly seven years. She currently sings, plays keys and fronts the band, KRIMSIN DOOR.

“We would definitely recommend KRIMSIN DOOR to others who wish to have a no-fuss, positive and exciting

JON - (One SKINNY HIPPY) - Jon was one of Karlisa's heart-broken victims from that Irving, TX neighborhood long, long ago. Classmates since elementary school, they each had NO IDEA, they'd be playing alongside each other, 25 years later, doing what they love to do - PERFORM LIVE! While Jon was growing up, avoiding arrest and trying to live-down that 'bad-kid from down the street' image, he was forming his love for the guitar, the guitarist that played 'em and everything ROCK-n-ROLL! Today, what you get with Jon's guitar playing sound and style is the direct result of his growing up digging the sound and style of Billy Gibbons of ZZ Top, Nuno Betancourt from Extreme and his ultimate Guitar-God, Eddie Van Halen. Jon lives near Decatur with his wife and three horses and has been performing on the DFW club scene for nearly four years. He currently handles all guitar duties for the band, KRIMSIN DOOR.

RANDY - (One FAT HALF-MEXICAN) - Randy grew up in Clovis, CA. He was one of the two kids out of seven who were musically inclined. While his late brother Ray would play the drums, he would always point out to Randy, what a cool bass line could sound like if he would just learn to play the bass. While going through a divorce at a very young age, ('to get chicks') he picked up the bass and started taking his brothers' advice to learn it. Randy grew up listening to many genres of music including, Blues, Rock, Jazz, Funk and Soul and it shows in his playing style. Randy moved to North Texas in 1992 and you can now hear him every week day morning on the Bo & Jim morning radio show (92.5FM). In 2004, he became the bassist for the legendary, Bo and Jim Frontal Lobotomy Boogie Band. Randy lives in Carrollton with his wife and two dogs and has been playing the DFW club scene for nearly three years. He currently plays bass guitar for the band, KRIMSIN DOOR.

REYES - (One BALD MEXICAN) - Reyes grew up on the "North-side" of Fort Worth, TX. He comes from a loving, hard-working family who always encouraged his love of 'banging-the-hell-outta' things. To fuel the fire inside their little bambino, his parents bought him his first drum-kit at the age of 8. Ya know? One of those fancy sets from Montgomery Wards. Then, he did his parents a favor, saved all his money and bought his first 'real set' of Ludwig drums. This is what afforded him the opportunity to play somewhere OTHER than the Sanchez home. Reyes' thunderous driving beat comes from years of being influenced by the Grass Roots, Credence Clearwater Revival, James Brown, Pink Floyd and Tower of Power. Reyes lives in Haltom City with his wife and nine dogs. He loves playing drums and singing at his church and has been playing the DFW club scene for 17 years. Reyes is the current drummer, lead and background vocalist for the band, KRIMSIN DOOR.
